Dimitris Dallas, (aka "Xspacewarzzzz") born in 1982, lives and works in Athens as a contemporary artist. He studied Graphic Design and Computer Graphics DTP & Web Design in AKTO. Inspired by everyday life, the people he meets, incidents and situations he observes, Dimitris will describe his art as mentioned below "My artworks depict explosions of stars and comets! Reveal the colors that are poured and spread around the universe after each explosion and the vortices that form, which remind me time machines. Into each star or comet, I portray life forms which have a lot in common with human life. Love, Eros, Peace and War." would be some of his words. Dallas works with sprays, acrylics, markers and spatulas improvising on his characters and symbolism. The repeating patterns encode his feelings. The fluidity and the sense of movement exuded by his work, express the energy that surrounds and configures the artistic creation.
